

INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNIQUES

COURSE OBJECTIVES

To launch one's career in training with a solid understanding of what it takes to be a good instructor; to develop a thorough understanding of the classroom instruction, to understand how to prepare effective instruction, to learn how to use tools and techniques to improve one's instruction, to acquire practical and communication skills, to know how to generate motivation and enthusiasm with participants, to improve one's knowledge and use of training aids

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Instructors wishing to become more involved in Instructional Design and its Techniques and to be better instructors

DURATION

5 DAYS

COURSE CONTENTS

- Understanding Learning and Instruction
- The Competencies of the Effective Instructor
- Writing Instructional Objectives
- Preparing Lesson Plans
- Creating and Using Effective Training Aids
- Managing Time and Resources Effectively
- Managing Classroom Dynamics
- Preparing and Conducting Demonstrations and Practical Exercises
- Integrating Group Work and Collaborative Learning
- Effective Team Teaching