

AIRCRAFT LOADING SUPERVISOR

COURSE OBJECTIVES

To ensure that loads are carried so as not to endanger the safety of the aircraft in any way; To ensure that damage is not caused to the aircraft floors and other systems; To ensure that by the correct preparation of loads delays to aircraft are minimized and that the use of special ground handling techniques is reduced, and to ensure the safety of staff

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

The staff who are either directly concerned with loading and unloading cargo, baggage and mail, into / from aircraft, or who are connected indirectly with these operations , such as in the reservation of cargo space and the preparation of loads into aircraft units whether at airport or at off airport locations

DURATION

- INITIAL: 10 DAYS
- RECURRENT: 5 DAYS

COURSE CONTENTS

- General Weight and Balance Proficiency and Awareness
- Aircraft Structural Load Limitations
- Unit Load Devices (ULD)
- Bulk Hold Loading
- Loading Instructions Report (LIR)
- Loading Messages
- Dangerous Goods
- Other Special Loads (e.g., Perishables, EAT AVI WET OBX LHO, Heavy Cargo)
- Positioning and Operations of Loading Equipment
- Operation of Aircraft Loading Systems.
- Customer Airlines Requirements (if any)
- Examination