

CABIN CREW SECURITY TRAINING

OBJECTIVE

The purpose of Security training for flight crew is to ensure that every crew member is aware and complies with the following:

1. The relevant national security programs of Syria.
2. Security Manual and Security Policy.
3. Chicago convention, Annex 17, ICAO Security Manual, SCARs, and AVSEC Conventions.
4. Understand the responsibility for personal security, security control of people and aircraft.
5. Assist in the process of aircraft search.
6. Alert procedures.
7. Respond to acts of unlawful interference such as unruly passengers, bomb threat, sabotage or unlawful seizure of airplanes and to minimize the consequences of such events should they occur.
8. Handling of unruly passengers, Bomb Threat and Hijacking.
9. Crisis management, Command and Control.
10. CB device activated.
11. General training may be achieved by means of handouts, leaflets, circulars, slide presentations, videos and lectures.

Course contents

The syllabus shall be approved by the SCAA and include the latest information and requirements of International and the National authority.

Security Training shall include:

1. Briefing on recent incidents that have occurred worldwide.
2. Briefing on the present security risks applicable to Captain's Authority
3. Understand the responsibility for security control of people and aircraft
4. Aircraft security, cockpit security, baggage security, cargo & mail catering security
5. Assist in the process of aircraft search
6. Alert procedures
7. Security countermeasures
8. Weapons, explosives, fuses, timers and methods of concealment
9. Respond to acts of unlawful interference such as unruly passengers, bomb threat, sabotage or unlawful seizure of airplanes and to minimize the consequences of such events should they occur.
10. Handling of unruly passengers, Bomb Threat and Hijacking procedures and response.
11. Crisis management, Command and Control.
12. CB device activated.
13. Bomb Threat.
14. Flight Crew Compartment security.
15. Airplane Search Procedure